Thank you for your faithful giving to Mother of Divine Providence!

Dear Friends,

Isaiah reveals his calling in the first reading, describing a magnificent scene with the Lord surrounded by angels. Because he feels unworthy, one of the angels touches his lips with an ember, purging his sin. When Saul and Simon are called by the Lord, they too immediately become aware of their sinfulness.

Here in the Presence of the Lord, we realize our own sinfulness and limitations. Let us also realize that the Lord still calls us to be disciples.

Do not be afraid to continue to respond to God's call every day. You will find yourselves not alone, but with people who are committed to the same mission, the same work, and the same call.

My prayers are for you this week for peace in your hearts and for love in your actions,

Father Cioppi

MOTHER OF DIVINE PROVIDENCE CHURCH

The messiness of life is inevitable. We are all broken and wounded ... broken people, broken relationships, broken institutions, and broken families. Can we be healed and become more beautiful and more lovable than ever before? Life is Messy is about putting our lives back together and allowing ourselves to be put back together when life doesn't turn out as we expected it to.
