Fourth Sunday of Easter

A religious painting of the Virgin Mary holding the infant Jesus. Mary is depicted with a serene expression, her head bowed slightly towards the child. She wears a blue robe and a white veil. The infant Jesus is wrapped in a white cloth and held in her arms. The scene is framed by a dense arrangement of white lilies, which are in various stages of bloom, adding a sense of purity and new life. The lighting is soft, highlighting the faces of Mary and the child.

CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS APPEAL

Please support the Catholic Home Missions Appeal today! Nearly 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered mission territories because they are unable to fund essential pastoral activities needed in their communities. Your support funds religious education, seminary formation, lay ministry training, and other programs that build vibrant faith communities right here in the United States. Please be generous in the second collection today. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Dear Friends,

The image of Jesus the Good Shepherd reminds us just how much we are loved by God.

When Paul and Barnabas returned to the synagogue in Antioch, almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. We hear the same comforting message that Jesus came to bring salvation to all. In Revelation, John describes his vision in which the Lamb shepherds people of every background to a place of life and joy.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells us that He – the Good Shepherd – gives His flock eternal Life.

As you continue to encounter God's merciful love in your lives, spend time thinking about what you heard this morning and always be aware that your parish supports and encourages your own life with God.

I want to take this opportunity to say how much I enjoyed last weekend's First Holy Communions and our parish May Procession. It is in this time that we see the value of Catholic Tradition and of keeping and nourishing our unique culture, especially in a world trying its best to expunge God from every aspect of our civic life.

Let me take this opportunity to wish all our mothers a Happy Mothers Day and promise them my prayers for peace in their families and to remember those mothers who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith.

May the peace of Christ be yours!
Father Cioppi

MDP SHORE UP THE FUTURE

As of May 1, 2022, we have received $175,690.50 in donations from 226 families for our 2020 Year 3 Challenge – renovations to the Parish Offices and creation of our Family and Youth Center. We are grateful to those who continue to contribute to this Appeal. Thank you for your generosity to Mother of Divine Providence Parish!

OFFERING "THE SIGN OF PEACE" DURING

MASS

Beginning Sunday May 1st, the invitation to offer The Sign of Peace will be resumed at all Masses at Mother of Divine Providence parish. By its nature the Eucharist is the sacrament of peace. At Mass, this dimension of the Eucharistic mystery is eloquently expressed during the Communion Rite when we offer each other the peace of the Risen Lord. When properly invoked and given to others in the celebration of Mass, this simple human gesture is lifted to the realm of the sacred.

In the United States, the Conference of Catholic Bishops has decided The Sign of Peace is reverently expressed by shaking hands only with those who are seated nearest to you, your immediate neighbors in the congregation. While the Sign of Peace is being given, it is acceptable to say; The peace of the Lord be with you always, to which the reply is Amen.

We recognize that shaking hands with those nearest you may be uncomfortable for some. In that case, a simple verbal exchange of peace may be offered.

Other expressions of Christ's peace, for example, waving to others seated at a distance from you or using the secular peace sign ("V") are gestures which are incompatible with the intended expression of communion with those nearest to you. Such gestures give rise to disorder in the congregation and should be avoided.

Offering the Sign of Peace at Mass remains an option which the priest may exercise at his discretion. Thank you for observing the proper use of this gesture during Mass.

UKRAINE IN CRISIS

The Ukraine Greek Catholic Church (UGCC) in Kyiv is providing humanitarian aid and assistance to the community during this catastrophic time. The Building the Church Universal Fund is seeking support for this important and life-saving work. During this period of war, UGCC has opened its buildings to the people of Ukraine. In addition to offering shelter from the unrelenting bombing, the UGCC also provides food, bathroom facilities, and other necessities to the desperate masses filling its buildings. At the request of the Head of the UGCC, His Beatitude Sviatoslav, all commissions and departments of the UGCC Curia have turned their attention towards alleviating the suffering of the Ukrainian people. The Social Ministry Department along with a vast network of Caritas-Ukraine, Military, and Medical Chaplaincy Departments are at the forefront of this humanitarian crisis.

Please consider donating to the Building the Church Universal Fund in support of UGCC's efforts. 100% of donations go directly to the Patriarchal Curia of the Ukraine Greek Catholic Church to help the people of this war-torn land. Click this link to help <https://thecfcp.org/donate/building-church-universal-fund-rosary-project>. Let's all pray for peace in Ukraine.
