SUPPORT THE BLACK AND INDIAN MISSION COLLECTION

The Black and Indian Mission Collection exists to help local African American and Native American Diocesan Communities throughout the United States spread the Good News of Jesus Christ and respond to real and pressing needs on the ground. The second collection this weekend supports this Mission. Please be generous.

Dear Friends,

I want to warmly welcome Father Fidelis Olokunboro to our parish. As I said last week, Father will be teaching at Cabrini University after earning his Doctorate Degree at Notre Dame in Indiana. He has already been a great help and a wonderful companion. I do appreciate his presence and willingness to serve as best he can here in King of Prussia.

Today the readings are filled with wisdom. The first from the Book of wisdom is this:

"And scarce do we guess the things on earth, and what is within our grasp we find with difficulty; but when things are in heaven, who can search them out?"

Discerning the things of heaven can be difficult even for saints, that is why the Church is our teacher and guide. We call her Mother because that is what She is for us. The Church is a mother who watches over us, cares for our well-being and guides us on the true path to heaven. We need this guide because we so often stray. Our pride and our arrogance will always blur our vision; fear and anxiousness will always derail our progress in holiness.

Jesus gives us the next wisdom advice: "Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple." Once we recognize that each of us has a cross to bear and that we bear it as individually as we are given it, but never alone. We have a community of bearers, right next to us, in the Church which embraces us all.

We should not be afraid to pray for each other and recognize in each other's faces the suffering Christ who looks, surprisingly, just like us.

*Be at peace in this holy place,
Father Cioppi*

MDP SHORE UP THE FUTURE

As of August 28, 2022, we have received $186,875.50 in donations from 226 families for our 2020 Year 3 Challenge – renovations to the Parish Offices and creation of our Family and Youth Center. We thank all those who continue to contribute to this Appeal. Thank you for your generosity to Mother of Divine Providence Parish!
