2022-2023 St. Charles Seminary Appeal

Theme: For Today, For Tomorrow, For All of Us

We are grateful to Kristian Guillen-Rauda for joining us this weekend and sharing his experience at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary. From forming our future priests and deacons, to educating the hundreds of lay men and women who study at the seminary, St. Charles' influence is far reaching. Please consider supporting our seminary by making a gift today. Additional information located at the exits of the church.

Dear Friends,

Today is the last Sunday of the liturgical year: Christ the King.

This Solemnity is a meditation on the reality of who Jesus is: "He is the image of the invisible God...for in Him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible...He is the head of the body, the Church...For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through Him to reconcile all things for Him, making peace by the blood of His cross through Him, whether those on earth or those in heaven."

"He is the image," hidden in the Bread of Life, of the invisible God! Today is the day we remind ourselves of what and whom we have, especially before us at Mass. And at Mass, we become aware of Jesus' Power to forgive, to be compassionate and to save the most unlikely sinners.

The key phrases in the Gospel give us a word splash into the reality of Jesus, the King of our hearts: "Are You not the Christ?" "Have you no fear of God?" "Today you will be with Me in paradise."

Advent is near my friends, commit yourselves to an hour of adoration before the Blessed Sacrament each week, on Tuesday. He waits for you here to help you encounter His Peace and His Father's Glory!

My prayers are for you and your families this week. May you and your families share peace and love, compassion, and forgiveness with each other, especially around the table. As we do each year, we will be distributing bread, graciously donated from LeBus, to all who come to Mass on Thanksgiving morning.

Peace and goodness,

Father Cioppi

MDP SHORE UP THE FUTURE
