Weekly Collection

Due to the early transmittal of this bulletin the collection amounts will be in next week's bulletin.

Dear Friends,

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia! The message goes in our ears and out of our mouths! He is raised. He is not dead. He is alive! We can testify to this truth because, even in these dire days, we can testify, at least spiritually, "We ate and drank with Him after He rose from the dead." We recognize Him in the Breaking of the Bread, and our communion with Him leads us to communion with each other! Jesus addressed God as Father and so we who are in communion with Him are His brothers and sisters, His brethren.

And so, our parish gathers on this primal day to renew our baptismal commission to 'go out' and make disciples. The great symbols of the resurrection life are all around us: The Light of the Paschal Candle, the Life-giving water of Baptism, the Bread of Eternal Life and the Word of God solemnly yet humbly proclaimed. Indeed, this is the day the Lord made; we are glad and rejoice in it!

I want to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to those parishioners who contributed in specific ways to our practice of Lent and our commemoration of the paschal mysteries. I want to thank especially Mrs. Marianne Houston, our Business Manager, Ms. Claire Pinto, our Director of Parish Services, Mrs. Debbie Scaramucci, my secretary and our environmentalist, and Mrs. Carol Murray our 'frontline' secretary. These women keep our parish moving, energized and able to help those who are in any way in need. I am deeply grateful for their dedication to me and this wonderful parish! I am sincerely grateful to Father Rott and Father Fidelis, who have helped tremendously by being good priests for our people. I am thankful to Deacon Mark Dillon, and Deacon Greg Maskarinec for their hard work and dedicated service to the Church. I would like to thank the Knights who do so much to help me in the administrative and pastoral work of the parish. I want to thank Ms Alexandra LaMastra for keeping our PREP vital and engaging; giving our families opportunities to mature their faith. I want to thank Mrs. Cecilia Beatty, Cantors, Choir, Ministers of the Altar and for those who added in any way to the richness of these days by their participation in the Sacred Rites. And finally, to Ms. Christine Pagan, our principal, and her teachers and staff. We are all proud of the work you are doing to support our parents in their role as primary teachers of their children.

In the name of my entire staff, I wish all of you a holy Easter, one spent with family, friends and with those nearest Jesus, the poor, the alienated and those who are suffering.

*Have hope in the peace of the Risen Christ,
Father Cioppi*

IN OUR PARISH

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER ROTT

Happy Easter everyone! We are here to help you and your families know that they are loved and welcomed during this joyous time! The resurrection of Jesus is the reason that the Church exists.

Bishop Robert Barron said that “the resurrection of Jesus from the dead is the be-all and end-all of the Christian faith. If Jesus didn’t rise from the dead, all bishops, priests, and Christian ministers should go home and get honest jobs and all the Christian faithful should leave their churches immediately”. As Paul himself put “If Christ has not been raised, then our proclamation has been in vain”.

The church has done much good over the years to promote social, educational, and medical needs to help humanity grow and develop. The Church has been a physical sign of Christ by, in essence, performing many miracles through institutions and charities, such as hospitals, schools, and resources for the poor. In many cases throughout the ages, supernatural miracles have also taken place. Jesus always performed miracles to show His authority as God, to show the coming of the kingdom of heaven, and display His power over evil. Similarly to the miracles performed by Jesus, all the good done by the Church over the past two millennia is ultimately only important if it leads humanity to have a deeper relationship with the risen Christ and His Church.

We are asked during this Easter time to have a greater spiritual understanding of the importance of Easter. One of the greatest reflections on the Resurrection of Christ took place in an ancient Easter homily reflecting on Holy Saturday. I hope you enjoy this great sermon detailing the great mystery of our faith:

What is happening? Today there is a great silence over the earth, a great silence, and stillness, a great silence because the King sleeps; the earth was in terror and was still, because God slept in the flesh and raised up those who were sleeping from the ages. God has died in the flesh, and the underworld has trembled.

Truly He goes to seek out our first parent like a lost sheep; He wishes to visit those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death. He goes to free the prisoner Adam and His fellow-prisoner Eve from their pains, He who is God, and Adam's son.

The Lord goes into them holding His victorious weapon, His cross. When Adam, the first created man, sees Him, he strikes his breast in terror and calls out to all: 'My Lord be with you all.' And Christ in reply says to Adam: "And with your spirit." And grasping his hand he raises him up, saying: "Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give you light."

I am your God, who for your sake became your son, who for you and your descendants now speak and command with authority those in prison: Come forth, and those in darkness: Have light, and those who sleep: Rise.

I command you: Awake, sleeper, I have not made you to be held a prisoner in the underworld. Arise from the dead; I am the life of the dead. Arise, O man, work of my hands, arise, you who were fashioned in my image. Rise, let us go hence; for you in me and I in you, together we are one undivided person.

For you, I your God became your son; for you, I the Master took on your form; that of slave; for you, I who am above the heavens came on earth and under the earth; for you, man, I became as a man without help, free among the dead; for you, who left a garden, I was handed over to Jews from a garden and crucified in a garden.

Look at the spittle on my face, which I received because of you, in order to restore you to that first divine inbreathing at creation. See the blows on my cheeks, which I accepted in order to refashion your distorted form to my own image.

'See the scourging of my back, which I accepted in order to disperse the load of your sins which was laid upon your back. See my hands nailed to the tree for a good purpose, for you, who stretched out your hand to the tree for an evil one.

'I slept on the cross and a sword pierced my side, for you, who slept in paradise and brought forth Eve from your side. My side healed the pain of your side; my sleep will release you from your sleep in Hades; my sword has checked the sword which was turned against you.

But arise, let us go hence. The enemy brought you out of the land of paradise; I will reinstate you, no longer in paradise, but on the throne of heaven. I denied you the tree of life, which was a figure, but now I myself am united to you, I who am life. I posted the cherubim to guard you as they would slaves; now I make the cherubim worship you as they would God.

"The cherubim throne has been prepared, the bearers are ready and waiting, the bridal chamber is in order, the food is provided, the everlasting houses and rooms are in readiness; the treasures of good things have been opened; the kingdom of heaven has been prepared before the ages."

The Lord has risen, He has risen indeed!

HOLY

IS HIS NAME

You shall be holy, for I am holy. ... These words in 1 Peter 1:16 remind us of our call to holiness. But what is holiness? Join us in this new parish-wide Bible study entitled, "Holy is His Name", as Scott Hahn traces the meaning of holiness from its origins in Scripture to its appearance in our own lives today.

When: Tuesdays starting February 21 from 7:15 to 8:45 PM
Where: Parish offices
